SustainFood's Student and Early Career Professionals (SECP) Community is hosting its first webinar! Please join us to learn more about the SustainFood project and its linkages with the WEF nexus in Africa.

SPEAKER :
Dr. Michael Jacobson

Dr. Michael Jacobson will be presenting on the evolution, approaches, methods and constraints to WEF Nexus operationalization with some examples from Africa.

Dr. Michael Jacobson is a professor of Forest Resources at Penn State. He teaches courses in forest economics, global agricultural systems, agroforestry and international forestry. He is currently leading an NSF AccelNet Project entitled "US-Africa Sustainable Food Systems through Water-Energy-Food Nexus Networking (SustainFood)".
